Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Warſaw, Sept. 11 N. S. Moſt of the Saxon Troops are arrived in this Kingdom, and great Impoſitions have been laid on the People for their Subſiſtence. King Auguſtus hath deferr'd his Journey to Sendomir, upon ſome advice he has lately received from Adrianople, by which we are inform'd, that King Staniſlaus was impriſon'd for endeavouring to perſwade the Turks that he had Letters from the Great Generals of Poland and Lithuania, aſſuring him that they would join him with their Troops under their Command, upon his firſt Appearance in this Country. The Palatin of Mazovia, our Ambaſſador at the Port, preſented a Memorial, in which he complain'd of this Calumny rais'd againſt the Poliſh Generals, who were prepared for a vigorous Defence, in caſe any Invaſion ſhould be made on the Kingdom. He receiv'd a favourable Anſwer to his Repreſentation, and was told, the Grand Signior would religiouſly obſerve his Treaties with the Republick, and only intended to Fortify Chocym in order to ſecure a Frontire on this Side; which was abſolutely requiſite in the preſent Conjuncture of his Affairs. The ſame Letters add, that the King of Sweden continued very much out of order, that he had a Gangrene in his Foot, for which it was found neceſſary to cut off two of his Toes.

Vienna, Sept. 9. N. S. On the 7th, the Queen of Portugal's Birth-Day was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence. The contagious Diſeaſe continues to rage here with great Violence, and the Perſons to whoſe Care the Health of the People is committed, meet every Day to conſider of proper Meaſures to prevent the Diſtemper from ſpreading. It is already got into Bohemia, and the Mortality is very great at Prague. It prevails likewiſe in Franconia towards Nuremberg, as alſo at Ratisbonne, from whence the Miniſters of the Diet have been oblig'd to remove. The Emperor has appointed Baron Leffelhotz to be Governor of Peter Varadin in the room of Baron Nehm, lately deceas'd. He is likewiſe conſtituted General of Sclavonia.

Berlin, Sept. 16. N. S. The King and Queen are expected from Weyſterhauſen on the 18th, and within a few Days after his Majeſty intends to ſet out for Goltz, in order to take the Diverſion of Stag Shooting. The Royal Regiment of Foot, and the Regiment of Anhalt, are upon their March to this Place, where they are to be in Garriſon all next Winter. Advices from Hamburgh bring an Account, that the Mortality encreaſes in that City, and the Number of Perſons that died there laſt Week amounted to above Five hundred. The King King of Denmark had for ſome time block'd up the Place, under Pretence of preventing the Contagion from ſpreading, whereupon the Elector of Hanover ſent Directions to his Reſident here, to repreſent the ill Conſequences of it to this Court, and to concert Meaſures with our Miniſters to prevent any Deſign his Daniſh Majeſty might have againſt that City: But we have been ſince informed, that the Danes have withdrawn their Forces from thence.

Paris, September 22. N. S. The Court continues ſtill at Fontainbleau, where his Majeſty often takes the Diverſion of Hunting and Fiſhing, and in the Evening of ſeeing a Comedy. An Expreſs is lately arrived from Mareſchal Villars with an Account, that the Army under his Command, conſiſting of Two hundred and fifty Squadrons, and Two hundred and twenty five Battalions, paſſed the Rhine on the 12th at Fort Louis and Fort Kehl, and was encamped at Offenburg. It is not yet known what Deſign he may have in view, but we are aſſured he has full Power to act as he ſhall judge moſt convenient. The Detachment that was made from the Army under Mareſchal Bezons, has been replaced by Thirty ſix Battalions lately ſent him, and he is now at the Head of One hundred Squadrons, and Sixty Battalions, without including Fifteen Regiments of Foot that are in Garriſon at Landau. The Fortifications of that Place are entirely repaired; a great Quantity of Ammunition and Proviſions has been ſent into the Magazines there, and the Marquis de Vieux is left to Command in the Town. The King has beſtowed the Government of Coutance upon Monſieur Blouin, one of the Grooms of the Bedchamber, with a yearly Salary of Twelve thouſand Livres.

Hague, Sept. 26. N. S. The States General have preſented the Marquis del Bourg, the Duke of Savoy's Miniſter, who has lately had an Audience of Leave, with a Gold Chain, and a Medal, and he is preparing for his Journey to Turin. On the 22d, the Preſident of the Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes, return'd a Viſit which he receiv'd the Day before from Monſieur de Châteauneuf, Ambaſſador
